“K” LINE REPORT 2026 Published

Kawasaki Kisen Kaisha, Ltd. (“K” LINE) announced today that it has published “K” LINE REPORT 2026.

In “K” LINE REPORT 2026, “K” LINE explains where the Group currently stands as it enters the final year of its medium-term management plan, looking back on its initiatives and achievements to date and outlining the Group’s thinking as it moves toward its next medium-term management plan from both financial and non-financial perspectives.

The report includes a message from President & CEO Takenori Igarashi, now in his second year in office. He explains the business strategies for the next stage of growth and the Company’s direction for the enhancement of corporate value. The CFO Message also provides a detailed explanation of our approach to boosting corporate value and our capital policy targeting an ROE of 15% or higher over the medium to long term.

We invite you to read “K” LINE REPORT 2026.
